Coaches' Bios...

Head Coach
Barry Mohun

Barry Mohun is in his fifth season as the Head Coach of the Shelton State Buccaneers. His overall record at Shelton is 107-39. Before landing at Shelton State, Mohun was the head coach at Prattville High School, leading the Lions to a 6A Final Four AHSAA finish in 1998. Mohun has also served as head coach for Paxton High School in Florida, Saint James in Montgomery and T.R. Miller in Brewton.

Mohun is a native of Montgomery, Alabama where he played for the Sidney Lanier Poets. After graduation, he played two years for Huntington College before finishing his playing career and earning All Conference honors at Belhaven College in Jackson, Mississippi. Mohun holds a bachelors degree from Belhaven and a masters degree from The University of Louisiana at Monroe, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the Indians.

Mohun was named the AJCCC Division I Coach of the Year in 2001 and serves as Shelton State's Athletic Director. He is married to the former Susan Coker, Assistant Dean of Student Services at Shelton State.

Assistant Coach
Tim Law

Coach Timothy Law is in his first season as Assistant Coach for the Buccaneers, however he is not a newcomer. Law was a member of the Shelton State Basketball Team for the 1995-97 seasons under Coach Mark Cornelius. He still holds the Shelton State record as the All-time Assist Leader. After graduating from Shelton State, Law signed to play for Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana. While at Centenary, Law served as team captain and was named to the Trans America Athletic Conference All- Academic Team. Law earned his bachelors degree in Health and Exercise Science in 2000. In addition to his duties as assistant coach, Law serves as Athletic Programs Specialist for the College.

Law is a native of York and a graduate of Sumter County High School. He and his wife Jossette have three daughters, Tanisha (8), Arkadia (3), and Nyla (6 months).
